

COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY

- This policy applies to ongoing employees, directors, contractors and volunteers of IRCA.
- Material created by employees in the course of their employment with IRCA, irrespective of whether it is created using IRCA facilities or materials, or during normal working hours, will belong to IRCA. Notwithstanding, employees who create IRCA materials by adapting their own copyright or intellectual property products, will retain their original copyright/intellectual property.
- Staff and volunteers must not reproduce, publish, distribute or adapt third party copyright material in the course of their work for IRCA without the authorisation of the copyright owner.
- Staff may not reproduce text, photographs or illustrations found on the internet without authorisation of the copyright owner. This includes for use in internal or external newsletters, reports or presentations. All non-generic images and illustrations should be sourced from and with the consent of the creator.
- Employees and volunteers may use copyright material belonging to or licenced to IRCA only for the purposes of their work for IRCA.
- Where material is used by IRCA under licence, staff and volunteers must act in accordance with that licence.
